

The Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland are announcing that effective January 1, 2003; bank drafting will be available for Water and Sewer bills.

What is Bank Drafting? Use bank drafting to pay your City of Cumberland Water and Sewer bills automatically. With bank drafting, your bank will automatically pay your City of Cumberland Water and Sewer bill directly from your checking or savings account on the due date. If there is a question about your bill, you will have plenty of time to call 301-759-6409 to resolve any problem before payment is made. Your payments will be reflected on future bills and bank statements – just as if you had taken the time to send a check.

This service is free. To enroll, complete the enrollment form - fold and insert it in the envelope provided along with a voided check from the account you wish to use - and send it in today - or stop in City Hall.
